

6516205060.txt

I subscribe to satellite radio and access the traffic and weather program when traveling . I oppose discriminating against availability of such information on satellite radio and can't understand why the law should interfere in this matter. Thanks for your consideration.